
Curriculum Vitae.....Colin Dunn

Colin has been a long time supporter and member of both SEAANZ and the International Council for Small Business and has had a strong commitment to the success of both organisations.

Colin was SEAANZ President from 2002 to 2004 and prior to this he was a SEAANZ Board member and Treasurer for a number of years. Colin undertook a number of roles on the ICSB including: Senior Vice President (Marketing) (2002); Senior Vice President (Finance) (2003/2004); and in 2005/2006 was ICSB President. Colin developed the first business plan for the ICSB and managed the process of renewing the ICSB website in 2004.

During his time on the SEAANZ Board and as Treasurer and then President, Colin assisted in managing the needs of 300 plus members and took a leading role in the conduct of SEAANZ Conferences, including as co-convenor (1999). He was convenor of the 2006 ICSB/SEAANZ Conference held in Melbourne. Colin is currently Secretary/Treasurer of the Australasian Institute of Enterprise Facilitators (AIEF).

Colin was an academic at RMIT University (School of Management) in Melbourne from 2000 to 2006 and prior to this he was a teacher (until 1994) and bureaucrat, both State and Federal (1994 to 2000). He is now semi-retired on the South Coast of NSW where he is working with community organisations (often as Treasurer) and teaching occasionally at the University of Wollongong.

Colin has been a CPA for over 30 years, has a commerce degree (University of Melbourne) and teaching and computing post-graduate qualifications. He has strong expertise in management and finance and is keen to see SEAANZ grow and develop. He sees that developing extensive networks with complementary organisations is an important way for the Association to proceed.

He is happy to be considered for a position on the Board and/or as a Vice President with responsibility for financial matters including business planning.
